Secretary's meeting.

Mr. Roach of the FBI, whom I had known off and on for many years, came to see me.

Messrs. Matthews, Bohlen, Nitze, Sargeant and Scott met with me on the PSB problem.

I had a courtesy call from the Mexican Ambassador, and then a visit from Joe Alsop, who seems to be scurrying around trying to pick up information about the Soviet [redacted] note.

E. came here to lunch; [redacted] afterwards we had a meeting in the Secretary's office for a final talk with George Kennan, who is leaving shortly for Moscow.

Myron Cowen discussed a variety of matters, and afterwards Messrs. Krentz, Joyce, McWilliams and Johnson gave me a briefing on China.

We went to a large dinner tonight at the Finleys'.
